The Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library is offering a research travel award to educators, graduate students, and independent researchers who would benefit from access to the manuscript and archival holdings in the Archives Research Center. The awards are to support teaching, research, and scholarship that will broaden awareness about these unique resources.

About the Archives Research Center Collections
The collections of the Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library’s Archives Research Center reflect the diverse contributions, achievements, and experiences of African Americans and the African diaspora. The Archives Research Center contains over 105 manuscript, photograph, and book collections that are accessible to the public. Archival holdings include the Atlanta University Presidential Records, Morehouse College Martin Luther King Jr. Collection, Tupac Amaru Shakur Collection, Voter Education Project Organizational Records, Walter Rodney Papers, Neighborhood Union Collection, Gardner C. Taylor Collection, Maynard Jackson Mayoral Administrative Records, Atlanta Student Movement Collection, C. Eric Lincoln Collection, and Countee Cullen-Harold Jackman Memorial Collection. Visit http://www.auctr.edu/archives to browse a complete listing of collections available for research.
